

1 in 6

Black men will develop prostate cancer in their lifetime

Power Over Prostate Cancer

FEB. 11, 2023

9 A.M. – 12 P.M.

A Gathering for Black Men and the Family Members Who Love Them

Presented by the UF Health Cancer Center Community-Partnered Cancer Disparities Research Collaborative & Office of Community Outreach & Engagement and the UF Department of Urology

- Learn about new prostate cancer treatments and prevention
- Talk with survivors, oncologists, sex & relationship therapists, and a financial support navigator
- Get support on coping with prostate cancer in group discussion sessions
- Learn about participating in cancer research studies

CO-CHAIRS

PASTOR RON RAWLS

Greater Bethel
AME Church

PASTOR ADRIAN TAYLOR

Springhill Missionary
Baptist Church

CAROLYN TUCKER, Ph.D.

Research Professor and
Program Director, UF
Department of Psychology,
UF Health Cancer Center

SPEAKERS

Thomas Stringer, M.D., Associate Chair & Associate Professor, UF Department of Urology

William Mendenhall, M.D., FACR, Professor, UF Department of Radiation Oncology

DRAWINGS FOR PRIZES & FREE BOXED LUNCH!

SPRINGHILL MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

120 SE WILLISTON ROAD
GAINESVILLE, FL 32641

MUST RSVP! SCAN THE QR CODE,
VISIT bit.ly/prostategny
OR CALL 352-359-5184

UFHealth
CANCER CENTER